

CMC Bryan R. Clemons
Command Master Chief
United States Coast Guard
ATLANTIC AREA

Master Chief Clemons assumed the duties of Command Master Chief Coast Guard Atlantic Area on July 10th, 2008.

Command Master Chief Clemons enlisted in the United States Coast Guard on 18 September, 1978. He completed recruit training at USCG Recruit Training Center Alameda, California.

Command Master Chief Clemons graduated Electrician's Mate "A" School Training, Governors Island New York in 1980. His Afloat Units include the Coast Guard Cutters MIDGETT (WHEC 726), CAPE CORWIN (WPB 95326), and MELLON (WHEC 717). His shore tours include Coast Guard Station Port O'Connor TX, Aids to Navigation Team Sandusky OH, LORAN Station Kure Atoll HI, Coast Guard Reserve Training Center Yorktown VA, and Coast Guard Supply Center Curtis Bay MD.

Master Chief Clemons' previous Commandant Designated Command Master Chief tours include the Fifth Coast Guard District Portsmouth VA, Coast Guard Training Center Yorktown VA, the Ninth Coast Guard District Cleveland OH, and Coast Guard Headquarters Washington DC.

Master Chief Clemons is a graduate of the Coast Guard Chief Petty Officer's Academy, Class XXIV. His personal awards include 4 Meritorious Service Medals, 2 Coast Guard Commendation Medals, 2 Coast Guard Achievement Medals, his Permanent Cutterman's Insignia and the Boat Forces Insignia.

Master Chief Clemons is married to the former Ms. Maude Moreo of Vandalia, Ohio. Master Chief and Mrs. Clemons have two children, LTJG Brad Clemons, USCG, and Mrs. Annajean Seman living in El Paso Tx with her husband PFC Paul Seman United States Army, Military Police.